Letter No. L.S. 1814—L.W. 161-50-2, dated 1st September 1950, from the Law Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore, addressed to the Accountant-General, Mysore, through Finance Department, Bangalore.

Subject :—Workmen's Compensation.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 881—Pen. dated 29th July 1950, on the above-mentioned subject, I am directed to state that the foot note ordered, in Government Order No. S.R. 6444-57—L.W. 69-47-3, dated 6th June 1949, to be added to Article 350 of the Mysore Service Regulations has the effect of reducing the extraordinary pension or gratuity due to an employee under the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations, by the amount of Workmen's Compensation, if any, drawn by him.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

Letter No. 11836, dated 16th October 1947 from the Chief Electrical Engineer in Mysore, requesting clarification regarding payment of Workmen's Compensation to sufferers in the Electrical Department consequent on the introduction of the Pension Scheme.

2. Correspondence ending with U. O. Note No. K. 54—48-49, dated 10th August 1948, from the Commissioner of Labour suggesting that the Mysore Service Regulations may be suitably amended in order that no undue benefits are claimed by the injured persons.

ORDER No. S.R. 6444-57—L.W. 69-47-3, DATED BANGALORE, 6TH JUNE 1949.

The Chief Electrical Engineer reported that the Auditor, Electrical Department, had brought to notice that consequent upon the application of the pension scheme to the Electrical Department, the men on the maintenance establishment could no longer expect to derive the benefit of the Workmen's Compensation Act, if they met with accident or death, since they had become entitled to extraordinary pension or gratuity under the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations. But he himself was of opinion that the two benefits are cumulative to permanent employees. He, therefore, sought orders of Government clarifying the matter.

2. The Comptroller to Government who was consulted states that the Workmen's Compensation Act may be amended suitably so as to make its benefits available only to such employees of Government as are not eligible for pension under the Mysore Service Regulations. The Commissioner of Labour is however of opinion that it would not be in the interests of employees if the Workmen's Compensation Act was amended as suggested and proposes that a suitable amendment may be made to the Mysore Service Regulations.

3. Agreeing with the Commissioner of Labour, Government are pleased to direct that the following foot note be added to Article 350 of the Mysore Service Regulations :—

"Any amount paid under the Workmen's Compensation Act shall also be taken into account in fixing the amount of pension."

4. Necessary amendment to the Mysore Service Regulations will issue separately.

MIR SAFDAR HUSSAIN,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.
